

Bonjour TI Travel Agent Partners!

Merci for joining us today for a taste of the wonderful island of Martinique. As I write this message, I am exploring this enchanting island with other travel industry colleagues and, of course, with Valerie Vulcain from the Martinique Promotion Bureau. I arrived on Saturday night via American Eagle. This airport is tops – one of the most modern in the entire Caribbean.

Our visit for the past few days has been amazing. This small French island is filled with colorful, friendly people, a very rich French and Creole culture, lush tropical beauty, and amazing landscapes including beautiful white and brown sand beaches, breathtaking mountains and even a very quiet volcano.

On Martinique, you'll find all the luxuries of France including beautiful language, fashion, culture and, of course, delicious cuisine. I've had the pleasure of indulging in several of the island's best restaurants and I must say it has been worth every mile I'll run when I return home!

Sit back and enjoy the journey you will hear today. You'll leave ready to share the Martinique experience and recommend this lovely island to your valued customers. Travel and holiday in Martinique is a life experience that should not and cannot be missed.

A bientôt,

Theresa
